

Photography Competition

St James' Church Eco Church Team are hosting a photographic competition. This year's title is "Phew! What a scorcher!"

The Competition is open to all (except professional photographers) whether are you an amateur photographer and or a happy snapper of all ages. There are separate categories for adults 18+, youth (12 - 17) and children aged 0-11 years.

We hope the photos received will be a mark what a record-breaking summer we are in. You can enter up to 2 photos to depict your experience of the unusual weather we are experiencing this summer—draught, hot weather, golden fields of corn, sunny skies, beautiful rises or sunsets, storm clouds, lightening or melting ice-creams. Photos could be celebrating the positives - sunny skies, dramatic storm clouds, or the negatives - dry streams, melting ice-cream. Photos are for a family audience.

Don't take any direct images of the sun it could damage your eyes, even behind the camera lens.

The competition is now open, but take time to photograph the perfect image (s). The closing date for entries is Monday 28th September 2026 9am

Terms and Conditions:

- All images submitted must be entirely the entrant's own work
- You may submit up to two photos per entrant.
- All entries must be received by the closing date of 28th September 2026 9am
- The Eco Church Team reserve the right to refuse entries deemed inappropriate.
- An application form must be submitted with all entries
- The declaration must be signed (typed if submitted online) by the person submitting or the parent/guardian if the entrant is in the children's category.
- Permission must be sought, and consent given by any persons featured in an image.
- By submitting a photographs entrants understand that St James' Church, Woodley has the right to use the image for different purposes including the Eco Open Afternoon whilst preserving and acknowledging the entrant's rights as creator of the work. Some images may also be included on the Church's Eco Noticeboard, Church Website and or Church Facebook Page or Eco Church Facebook Page.

Entries by email to office@stjameswoodley.org with images attached as JPG or PNG files with attached Entry Form

All photos will be displayed as part of our Eco Open Afternoon on Saturday 17th October 2026 between 2pm and 4.30pm to which all entrants would be welcome to attend.